

Insyghts Security Service Matrix

Insyghts Security's service offering addresses key area of information security and cybersecurity frequently overlook by company leaders and owners. They are usually confronted by a big range of options for their protection which make selection of solution or practice difficult, but overlook the policy, process, and procedure to maintain good cybersecurity hygiene.

Core Services

Our core services offered encompass a holistic approach to cybersecurity. Strategy, Risk & Governance involve developing strategic frameworks aligning security measures with business objectives and regulatory compliance. Defensive Security focuses on proactive measures to safeguard digital assets, employing firewalls and protective protocols. Offensive Security takes a controlled approach, utilizing ethical hacking to identify and address vulnerabilities. Technologies & Security Engineering deploy cutting-edge solutions to build robust security architectures. Security Operations involve day-to-day activities, including monitoring, incident response, and real-time threat detection, ensuring a continuous and resilient defense against cyber threats. Together, these services provide a comprehensive and integrated approach to address the diverse challenges in cybersecurity.

Strategy,
Risk &
Governance

Defensive
Security

Offensive
Security

Technologies
& Security
Engineering

Security
Operations

