Securing the Digital Enterprise Since 2000

i-Sprint Innovations secures the digital front door for Asia's most demanding organizations — banks, government agencies, and large enterprises. From identity and access management to mobile and software protection, and from data-loss prevention to post-quantum readiness, i-Sprint delivers financial-grade security trusted across the region. As identity, artificial intelligence, and quantum computing reshape the threat landscape, i-Sprint is extending its platforms so customers stay protected at every layer.

Identity Secured . AI Protected . Quantum Safe

What's New Across the i-Sprint Product Lines

To meet the identity, AI, and quantum challenges of the next decade, i-Sprint is rolling out new modules across its core product lines:

AccessMatrix

Identity and Access Management

Authentication, SSO, PAM, and identity governance for people, AI agents, and NHI.

AppProtect+

Multi-Platform Application Security

Mobile, multi-platform software, and AI-model protection with license control and advanced threat intelligence.

QubitSafe

PQC App Migration

Post-quantum cryptography migration and crypto-asset management — discover, assess, implement, monitor.

Enterprise Secure Workspace

Data Loss Prevention Solution

Delivering a unified, secure workspace across web and desktop environments.

YESsafe

Multi-Factor Authentication

Mobile Application Detection and Response (ADR) with Advanced Threat Intelligence

Threat Intel & Response

360° Cyber Defence and Brand Protection

Proactively detect and mitigate threats across networks and digital channels.

Secure What's Next

Whether you are governing AI agents and non-human identities, protecting software and AI models across platforms, adopting generative AI safely, or migrating to post-quantum cryptography, i-Sprint can help you build the roadmap. Get in touch to arrange a briefing or a live demonstration.
